

Email Remarketing

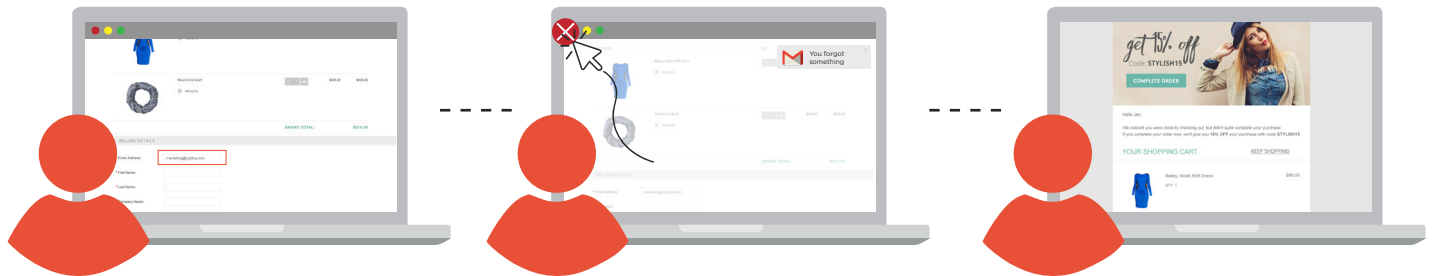

Cybba crafts unique, individual emails with all the elements you need to recover lost sales from cart abandonment. The result is a revenue increase of up to 5%.

Recover abandoned carts with our intelligent email solution

On average, 70% or more of your customers with an item in their cart will abandon before completing their transaction.

With our Email Remarketing solution, improve your customer experience and ensure that your brand and products stay top of mind. Convert your abandoning customers when they are ready to complete their purchases.

1. Our solution captures email addresses in real-time as customers enter them on your website

2. When customers abandon without completing their transaction, we send them a Remarketing email within 1 hour after they leave the site
